

APTREX INSTITUTE

Professional Certification for the Transportation Industry

News Release

For Release: IMMEDIATELY

Contact: Jenny Fang

Date: February 22, 2005

Phone: (360)945-2150

Miami-Dade Ron Barnes Earns CTEM® designation

POINT ROBERTS, WA - The Deputy Director of Operations from the Miami Dade Transit was awarded the Certified Transit Executive Manager – CTEM® designation by the American Public Transit Exams Institute.

Ronald L. Barnes, is very well known as a transit leader. Mr. Barnes achieved his certification by demonstrating continuing education credits under the requirements for recertification. Receiving the Certified Transit Executive Manager (CTEM) designation, shows his drive toward excellence in everything he does. Mr. Barnes' leadership begins with employees, but it certainly doesn't stop there.

APTREX Institute CEO, David Stumpo said, "Mr. Barnes is a model transit industry manager. He is an example of visualizing a dream and making them come true by working hard, learning everyday and challenging oneself. Transit certification is a sign of excellence and we will continue to build excitement throughout our industry."

The elements of transit certification were built upon a standard from years of research and development. These results focus on positive development for our workforce and improvement for one's customers.

The APTREX Institute was developed in 1993 as an "arms-length" organization for the implementation of certification testing for supervisory and management personnel.

Certification means a knowledgeable, dedicated, focused and committed staff. This sets the standard for our industry to achieve excellence. For further information about the APTREX Institute, please visit our website at www.aptrex.com or contact us at 360-945-2150.