CTDVM® Professional Transit Certification Awarded

POINT ROBERTS, WA - Ms. Gail Franklin of the Georgia Regional Transportation Authority (GRTA) was awarded the Certified Transit Division Manager CTDVM® designation.

Ms. Franklin is presently a Transit Planner for GRTA and has been with the Authority for over two-years. She is a graduate of Auburn University and has been in the Transportation Industry for over 15 years.

APTREX Institute CEO, David Stumpo said, "Ms. Franklin is continually recognized for her outstanding efforts." Her former manager also said, "I can not say enough about the value of her forthright, straightforward and honest approach to all of her work and interpersonal relationships pm the job. I highly recommend Gail."

The APTREX Institute was developed in 1993 as an "arms-length" organization for the implementation of professional transit certification testing for supervisory and management personnel.

Certification means a knowledgeable, dedicated, focused and committed workforce. This sets the standard for our industry to achieve excellence.

The elements of transit certification were built upon a standard from years of research and development within our industry. These results focus on positive development for our workforce and improvement for our customers.
